

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT.

A new church near Allenville was dedicated Sunday and there were nearly five hundred people present.

Will our merchants have a little get-up about themselves this year and make displays at the Fair.

The Anchor Line people are again talking of putting a boat in the Cape Girardeau trade in opposition to the steamer Idlewild.

Capt. Schuchert has secured a first-class theatrical company for Fair week.

There will be lots of shows in town next week but the main attraction will be a first-class theatrical company at the Opera House.

Judge Ross informs us that he is going to try to clean up the docket in the Common Pleas Court this week.

The man Henry Stiff, whose mouth caused him to get shot, is still improving and he is not going to be as stiff as was supposed when he was first shot.

All the candidates—Republicans, Democrats and Populists, will attend the Fair next week. Go there and you will find them.

A little eleven-year-old girl was adjudged insane in the Common Pleas Court last Tuesday morning, and she will be sent to the Nevada Asylum.

Our merchants are dressing up their show windows for the people who come here Fair week to look at.

French's floating palace went on up the river. It will come down in a few weeks on its way back to New Orleans.

The Democrats have decided upon some of the men to nominate. Henry English will be the nominee for Circuit Clerk and Judge Albert will again be the nominee for Presiding Judge of the County Court.

There are several cases on the docket in the Common Pleas Court that were brought here on change of venue from Stoddard county. The parties interested are here and the cases will probably be tried at this term of court.

Hon. M. R. Smith, of Farmington, is here attending the Common Pleas Court. Mr. Smith is attorney for some of the Buckalew victims in the U. S. Circuit Court in St. Louis.

Judge Ross is rushing the business in the Common Pleas Court in the hope of clearing the docket this week. Next week the Fair will be going on and the Judge wants to give lawyers, witnesses and all an opportunity to attend the Fair.

The Spanish street hotel is again open and we understand it is doing a good business.

Our coal dealers are delivering coal to their customers as rapidly as they can get it off the cars.

Frank E. Burroughs is making preparations to move out to his country home.

In the case of Lindemann vs. Honck, a change of venue was asked for and granted in the Common Pleas Court and the case was sent to Scott county.

Ed. Poe will not be a Democratic nominee in this county this year.

Ben Blair would not refuse the Democratic nomination for Sheriff, but he will not have a chance to say yes or no. He lives in the bush.

Thomas W. Gannon, of Cairo, Illinois, has been appointed one of the Commissioners of the Anna, Illinois, Insane Asylum. Mr. Gannon is a brother of Mr. R. E. Gannon of this city, and he is a partner in the Water Works Company in this city. He is a thorough business man and his appointment to so responsible a position shows that he is a man whose business qualities are recognized by his people.

Col. P. R. VanFrank gave the DEMOCRAT a call to-day. He went through the office and he said he never expected to see such a fine printing office in this city.

The Fair grounds are in fine condition for the big Fair next week. Now let our people do their duty and we will have a successful Fair.

Silver Dick, F. A. Kage's fast pacer, is on the Fair grounds training for the big pacing race. The horse that beats Silver Dick will have to do some fast pacing.

Honck's Perryville and Chester Railroad will begin running regular passenger trains on October 1st. They will sell round trip tickets to St. Louis for six dollars and fifty cents. Let the backwoodsmen of old Perry county get out of the county and air themselves.

Merchants and business men who want to tell the people what they have to sell should place their advertisements in the DEMOCRAT. Its circulation is double the combined circulation of any other two papers in the county.

The St. Louis, Cape Girardeau & Fort Smith Railroad will run a special train on the day of the Ringling show in this city and give reduced rates to those who wish to come to the Cape to see the big shows.

Mrs. Rosie Elsworth was in the city Tuesday. Mrs. Elsworth is the lady who shot Henry Stiff. She did the shooting in defence of the honor of her daughter and if reports are true she ought to have killed her man.

The building committee of the Board of Education has examined the new addition to the public school building and the work is found to be all right. The committee will report to the Board at its meeting next Monday and the building will be received and the contractor will receive his pay and be discharged.

The Si Perkins Comedy Company played to a full house at the Opera House last night. This is the best company we have ever had in the city and its performance was appreciated by our people. Si Perkins' name is famous and he is entitled to all the fame he has been given. Such shows deserve liberal patronage.

Seven booths on the Fair grounds have been rented. Mr. Fullenwider has some fine horses on the Fair grounds training for the races.

Some of the candidates will take a trip over the county the week after the Fair.

It is strange, but it is a fact nevertheless, that lawyers who come here from other counties are not as fine, healthy looking men as our home lawyers.

The City Council will meet in regular session next Monday morning.

Frank Canz will go to St. Louis and go into the wholesale ice cream business.

Mr. Thomas W. Gannon, of Cairo, Ill., has been in the city a day or two. Mr. Gannon is now one of the Commissioners of the Anna Insane Asylum.

Mrs. Sheppelman bid in the Miller and Sheppelman property that was sold Wednesday.

Col. Joe Lynch, of St. Louis, is in the city on a pleasure trip. Joe used to do considerable business in this city, but that was when he advertised in the DEMOCRAT.

She has hats to suit all, rich and poor, at hard times prices. Don't fail to call on her for your fall and winter hats for she will suit you both in quality and price.

There will be plenty to eat and plenty to drink on the Fair grounds next week.

Bishop Hendrix Coming.

The Rev. Bishop Hendrix, L. L. D. of Kansas City, will visit our city next Monday evening and preach that night at the Methodist church on Sprigg street. He is said to be one of the ablest divines in the country and it will be a treat to our people to hear him. He is now holding the Methodist Conference in Farmington, having just closed a meeting of the same kind in Jefferson City, where he was delightfully entertained by Gov. Stone, says the Globe-Democrat. He will be here one night and all should hear the Missourian who has achieved a national reputation.

A Business Change.

John Vogelsanger has purchased the confectionary and toy store of Frank Canz and will take full charge this week. Mr. Canz will go to St. Louis and go into business. Frank Canz has been in business in this city a long time and his many friends will regret to see him leave the town. John Vogelsanger is well known to our people. He has been a clerk in the hardware store of E. S. Lilly for several years, and while he may not be an expert in the confectionary business he is a good business man, and we believe he will make a success in his new business.

Will Washington Gets Five Years.

Will Washington, the young colored man who cut a brakeman on the Grand Tower road some five or six months ago, had his trial at Murphysboro, Illinois, Wednesday and was convicted and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Young Washington was sent to the pen for this county for knocking a man in the head with a club. He served his time—two years, and was discharged. He was out of the pen only a few months till he got into the cutting scrape for which he will now have to serve five years in the Chester pen.

A Dead Man Tells no Tales.

That a dead man tells no tales is a true saying and one can be convinced by attending the probate courts and watching the grand rascals rushing in claims against his estate that they dared not present to the man while he was living. There are people who make their living gouging the estates of the dead. We all know this, but we are not interested in the estates and what business have we meddling? The Probate Judges know it too but when the rascals swear to their claims and have witnesses to swear for them too there is nothing to do but allow the claims, robbery or no robbery.

Nicholas Nicaise Dead.

Nicholas Nicaise died at his residence in this city Tuesday morning Sept. 24th, 1894, aged forty-nine years and eleven months.

The deceased was a native of France but he has resided in this city for more than thirty years. He was a miller by trade and until about ten or twelve years ago worked at his trade. When he quit the milling business he started in the saloon business and for some years did a splendid business. In this business he drank to excess and ruined himself financially and physically. He went to Hot Springs, Ark., about a month ago in the hope of regaining his health, but his trip to the Springs was too late and he came back home where he lingered about a week before death relieved him of his misery. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

They are Striking for the South.

The Mississippi River is full of little house boats filled with the poor classes of people from the cities in the north. One of these boats landed here the other day and the gentleman who had charge of it told a representative of the DEMOCRAT that he was taking his family south for the winter. He said he lived in Chicago, that he could not make a living in the city during the winter months and he had by hard work got to the Mississippi River with his family, built himself a little boat and was going to winter in a warmer climate. The gentleman says there are thousands of people in the large cities who will have to move out or live on charity during the winter months.

They Enjoy City Life.

The gentlemen from the country who are doing jury duty in the Common Pleas Court, are also enjoying the sights of the city. While not on duty they are out taking in the town and their smiles shows that they are having a good time.

Work on the Reservoir.

Dirt was broken Tuesday evening on the water works reservoir. This will be a big job, but Mr. Gannon informs us that he expects to have it completed and the water works in operation on or before the first of December. He will work a large force of hands on the reservoir.

From Kennett to Caruthersville.

A large force of hands with expert railroad construction bosses are at work on the Kennett & Caruthersville Railroad and it will not be long now till Dunklin county will have a short and direct outlet to the Mississippi River. This will open up to settlers some of the finest country in Southeast Missouri.

The Bitters go With the Sweets.

The editor the Perryville Republican became excited when the railroad men were paid off and got drunk on their hard earned money. A crew of railroad men on a how-come-you-so was a curiosity to the people of Perryville. They had lived in the backwoods, cut off from civilization so long that to see a gathering of men on the streets naturally excited them and when the railroad men got their pay and began, as all railroad men do, to blow it in for Democratic medicine the editor of the Republican was horrified. He wanted the county officials to call on Cleveland for troops to guard the good pious citizens of that long lost town.

The Southeastern District Fair.

The twenty-ninth annual Fair of the Southeastern District Agricultural Society will open on the second day of October and continue five days. This Fair is recognized throughout Southeast Missouri as a District Fair—as much so as Cape Girardeau is recognized as the metropolis of Southern and Southeast Missouri, and it is the duty of the citizens of this city to do everything in their power to make this Fair such an attraction as will bring the people here from far and near.

The merchants, the hotel and saloon men of this city look to Fair week to bring them good business and they do not look in vain. The city is full of people all Fair week and every visitor leaves some money here. Then is it not to the interest of every business man in the city to do something to make the Fair a success by aiding in making it attractive? There is room in the Floral Hall for every merchant in the city to make a handsome display and if they will have enterprise enough to make such displays they will be helping themselves and helping the Fair at the same time.
